A rich, haunting and deeply moving novel about the power and the danger in a mother's love, from one of the most exciting new voices in Irish fiction

Twenty years ago, Oona left the island of Inis for the very first time. A wind-blasted rock of fishing boats and turf fires, where the only book was the Bible and girls stayed in their homes until they became mothers themselves, the island was a gift for some, a prison for others. Oona was barely more than a girl, but promised herself she would leave the tall tales behind and never return.

The Island Child tells two stories: of the girl who grew up watching births and betrayals, storms and secrets, and of the adult Oona, desperate to find a second chance, only to discover she can never completely escape. As the strands of Oona's life come together, in blood and marriage and motherhood, she must accept the price we pay when we love what is never truly ours ...

Rich, haunting and rooted in Irish folklore, The Island Child is a spellbinding debut novel about identity and motherhood, freedom and fate, and the healing power of stories.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Molly Aitken was born in Scotland in 1991 and brought up in Ireland. She studied Literature and Classics at Galway University and has an MA in Creative Writing from Bath Spa. She was shortlisted for Writing Magazine's fairy tale retelling prize in 2016 and has a story in the Irish Imbas 2017 Short Story Collection. Currently, she works as an editor and ghostwriter and lives in Sheffield. The Island Child is her debut novel. @MollyAitkenI

The third dark and gripping Harry McCoy thriller from the most exciting new voice in Scottish noir

WHO IS TO BLAME WHEN NO ONE IS INNOCENT?

The papers want blood.

The force wants results.

The law must be served, whatever the cost.

August 1973. The Glasgow drugs trade is booming and Bobby March, the city's own rock-star hero, has just OD'ed in a central hotel.

Alice Winters is twelve years old, lonely. And missing.

Meanwhile the niece of McCoy's boss has fallen in with a bad crowd and when she goes AWOL, McCoy is asked – off the books – to find her.

McCoy has a hunch. But does he have enough time?

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

*The debut novel – a time-travelling story of love and adventure – from the number one bestselling author of How Not To Be a Boy and star of *Peep Show

Kate still sleeps with her husband's T-shirt, but it doesn't smell of Luke any more. She misses him every day.

One morning, Kate wakes up back at college. She's eighteen years old. She remembers everything. And she realises that this is the week that she will meet Luke for the first time.

What if the man you lost could be found again? But then, what if he doesn't know he's lost? And what if he's still just a boy?

The debut novel from Robert Webb, Come Again is a time-travelling romance about living in the moment, love before death, and life before the internet.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Robert Webb is best known for his work as the Webb half of Mitchell & Webb in the Sony award-winning That Mitchell & Webb Sound and the Bafta award-winning That Mitchell & Webb Look, and as permanent man-boy Jeremy in the acclaimed Peep Show. A hilarious new collection poking fun at the scientific world, from the New York Times bestselling cartoonist and illustrator

A dog philosopher questions what it really means to be a 'good boy'. A virtual assistant and a robot-cleaner elope. The undiscovered species and the theoretical particle face existential despair.

Just as he did with writers, poets and literary classics in Baking with Kafka, Gauld now does with hapless scientists, nanobots, and puzzling theorems – with comic strips funny enough to engage science boffins and novices alike.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Tom Gauld was born in 1976 and grew up in Aberdeenshire. He is a cartoonist and illustrator with weekly comic strips in the Guardian and New Scientist and his comics have been published in the New York Times and on the cover of the New Yorker. In addition to his graphic novels, Goliath, You're All Just Jealous of My Jetpack, Mooncop (a New York Times bestseller) and Baking with Kafka (winner of Best Humour Publication at the 2018 Eisner Awards), he has designed a number of book covers. A powerful debut novel that delicately blends Hawaiian myth with the broken American dream

In 1994 in Kailua-Kona, Hawaii, seven-year-old Nainoa Flores is saved from drowning by a shiver of sharks. His family, struggling to make ends meet amidst the collapse of the sugar cane industry, hails his rescue as a sign of favour from ancient Hawaiian gods.

But as time passes, this hope gives way to economic realities, forcing Nainoa and his siblings to seek salvation across the continental United States, leaving behind home and family.

With a profound command of language, Washburn's powerful debut novel examines what it means to be both of a place, and a stranger in it.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Kawai Strong Washburn was born and raised on the Hamakua coast of Hawaii. His short fiction has appeared in McSweeney's, Electric Literature and The Best American Nonrequired Reading, among others. He has received scholarships from the Tin House and Bread Loaf writer's workshops and has worked in software and as a climate policy advocate. He lives in California with his wife and daughters. Sharks in the Time of Saviours is his debut novel. kawaistrongwashburn.com

The Infinite is a mind-bending, time-twisting adventure for readers who loved Time Travelling with a Hamster and A Wrinkle in Time. The first book in The Leap Cycle series

Sometimes all that's needed is a deep breath and a leap...

Elle Bibi-Imbelé Ifié is a Leapling, born on the 29th of February, a day which only exists every four years. Like all other Leaplings, including her best friend Big Ben, Elle has the ability to jump through time from one Leap Year to the next.

On her twelfth birthday Elle goes on a school trip to 2048 to visit the Time Squad Headquarters. But when she reaches the future it isn't only flying cars, robots and weird food she has to deal with. Leaplings are going missing, seemingly lost in time, and unless Elle can find them the world as she knows it will cease to exist.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Patience Agbabi was born in London in 1965 to Nigerian parents, spent her teenage years living in North Wales and now lives in Kent with her husband and children. She has been writing poetry for over twenty years, The Infinite is her first novel. Like Elle, she loves sprinting, numbers and Pepper Soup, but, disappointingly, she was born in August. The Infinite is the first book in The Leap Cycle series.

A wickedly dark, multi-award-winning noir novel in translation about corruption in the Argentine state

Luis Machi has had enemies for a long time: after all, he's built his success on dirty deals – not to mention his cooperation with the military junta's coup years ago, or his love life, a web of infidelities. What's new is the corpse in the boot of his car. A body with its face blown off, detained by a pair of furry pink handcuffs that Machi knows well ...

Someone is trying to set him up, but the number of suspects is incalculable. Machi is stuck dredging his guilty past for clues and trying to dispose of the mystery corpse. But time is just another enemy and it's running out fast.

Like Flies from Afar is a wickedly dark and thrilling ride through the corruption and violence of Argentina, embodied by a single degenerate man and one very complicated day.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

K. Ferrari was born in Buenos Aires. He is the author of the novels Operation Bukowski, What Was Not (Winner of the Casa de las Américas Prize in 2009), Nadie es Inocente and Punto Ciego – in co-authorship with Juan Mattio. Like Flies from Afar is published in Argentina, Spain, Italy, France and the US. RELEASE DATE: 4 JUNE 2020

PAPERBACK

£7.99

Like an enchanted mix of Sabrina and Nanny McPhee, Everyday Magic is strange, spooky and a total riot!

When nine-year-old Archie Blackstack is left orphaned he is sent to live with his two rather eccentric aunts in their cobwebby house in the village of Little Snoddington. Before long it becomes pretty obvious to Archie that his aunts aren't just weird, they're witches! His Aunt Gertie's hair changes colour and Aunt Zita is followed everywhere by an enormous bat called Magnus and rides around on a flying vacuum cleaner.

When the circus comes to town, and with it Archie's first ever friend, the adventurous and fearless Calypso, Little Snoddington fills up overnight with witches, including the Head Witch herself, Prunella Morrow, and her terrifying assistant Featherlegs (half-witch, half-spider). And things only get stranger when Archie is given a magical snow globe, a grandfather clock starts reversing time and Calypso's baby sister disappears into thin air. Archie must be braver than he ever thought he could be, to help his friend, protect his new home and save the witching world.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Jess Kidd was brought up in London as part of a large family from County Mayo. Her first novel, Himself, was shortlisted for the Irish Book Awards in 2016 and she was the winner of the Costa Short Story Award in the same year. In 2017, Himself was shortlisted for the Authors' Club Best First Novel Award and longlisted for the CWA John Creasey (New Blood) Dagger. Her second novel, The Hoarder, was shortlisted for the Kerry Group Irish Novel of the Year Award in association with Listowel Writers' Week'. Both books were BBC Radio 2 Book Club picks. In their first case together, Glaswegian police team DI Anderson and DS Costello chase the Crucifixion Killer

The Crucifixion Killer is stalking Glasgow, leaving victims' mutilated bodies in a Christ-like pose. DCI Alan McAlpine is drafted in to lead the hunt, supported by local officers DI Anderson and DS Costello.

But the past holds horrific memories for McAlpine. He last worked this beat some twenty years earlier, when he was assigned to guard a woman – faceless after a sadistic acid attack – at a Glasgow hospital. An obsession was born at that hospital room that has never quite left McAlpine and now it seems to be resurfacing. As the chase to halt the gruesome murders intensifies, so Anderson and Costello find chilling cause for concern uncomfortably close to home ...

The second book in the Crane and Drake series from crime writer Parker Bilal

In this second book of the London-based Crane and Drake trilogy, Cal Drake has left the police force and is now working as a private detective, having teamed up with the motorcycle-riding Dr Rayhana Crane. The Heights, Crane and Drake Book 2, opens with the grisly discovery of a severed head on the Tube. As the investigation progresses, it becomes apparent that the murder victim is tied to Drake's past – and threatens the new future he is trying to build.

As they investigate this new murder and the disappearance of a young international student from the Gulf, Crane and Drake again find themselves in the dark underworld of London with international crime, local rivalries and a very personal quest for retribution.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Parker Bilal is the pseudonym of Jamal Mahjoub, the critically acclaimed literary novelist.
